Tradie Tuesday

Tradie Tuesday is here to break the Mental Health stigma, spark honest conversations, and support the legends who keep our communities running.*

What's Happened this Month

Interstate work has its perks!- Our trade-qualified frigies and electricians hit the road, supporting drilling rig campaigns across state lines. In between the hard work, they managed to take in a few sights-proving that work and adventure can go hand in hand! We're also excited to welcome Memphis to the team! He's hit the ground running and is already proving to be a great addition - we're looking forward to seeing him grow with us. And the positive energy didn't stop there...We received some wonderful feedback from a recent client, who had this to say after a visit from our team: "You should be proud of the two young men that were here this morning - so polite and well-mannered! A pleasure to have working in your home" A big shoutout to Mitchell and Memphis for representing us with professionalism and pride. Keep up the great work!
